~St. Peter Church History~

There is a book which details the history of St. Peter Church, and is titled, Upon This Rock, but it is no longer published.

However, there is a PDF version of the text (it can be downloaded or read on -line), and we have linked to it on the parish web site:

www.stpetersteub.com. The parish web site also contains information on parish history. Mrs. Nancy Givens has volunteered to take up the task of organizing the history of the parish. If you have pictures, or any other types of parish memorabilia, that you would like to donate, please call her at 740-424-3674. Thank you to those who have donated items!

~St. Peter Church Office Hours~

The church office is open Monday–Thursday, 8:30 a.m.– 2 p.m. It is closed on holidays.

*E.F. - Extraordinary Form

As most of you are already aware, Fr. Bradley Greer has been assigned as parochial vicar here at St. Peter effective July 1. He will continue with studies at Catholic University and master of ceremonies to the Bishop as well.

If, for medical reasons, you wish to receive only the Precious Blood, please inform the priest or deacon (in the sacristy) before the Mass. A separate chalice will be consecrated.

During the month of July, Andrew Barnick will be away on vacation. While there will be musical accompaniment at the 10 a.m. Masses on Sundays, the 4 p.m. Saturday and 8 a.m. Sunday Masses will be quiet; i.e., there will be no music.

AIM WOMEN'S CENTER BABY BOTTLE CAMPAIGN

The Aim Women's Center will be having their Annual Baby Bottle Campaign at our Church. Bottles are available in the church. Monies raised through this campaign are used to help support the daily needs of the AIM Women's Center, offering free ultrasounds and pregnancy tests to those in need. Thank you in advance for your generosity. What a wonderful way to celebrate life.

THAT MAN IS YOU!
Becoming a man after God's own heart!

This is an interactive men's program focused on the development of men in the modern world. It combines the best research from science with the teachings of the Catholic faith and the wisdom of the saints to develop the vision of the saints to develop the vision of authentic men capable of transforming themselves, their families and greater society. The program is divided into two 13 weeks sessions. The Fall session emphasizes the development of the Scriptural vision of man, especially in his relationship to his family and society while the Spring session emphasizes the practical means of becoming that man.

~Samaritan House News~

The Samaritan House* is in need of regular food pantry items: cereal, vegetables, peanut butter, chili, tuna, pork and beans, fruit, macaroni and cheese, crackers, spaghetti, spaghetti sauce, ravioli, and soup. You may leave items in the back (front vestibule) of the church.

Please remember the sick and homebound* of our parish in your prayers:

Darrin Corrigan
Debbie Straker
John Koniski
Bernie Zapolnik

Michael Olenick
Mary Grimmett
Mary Ice
Ed Klonowski
James Kidwell
Clara Szydowski
Catherine Letcher

call office (740-282-7612) to make changes to this list, or to add a loved one to the prayer line.

The Samaritan House is run by the Franciscan Sisters, TOR of Penance of the Sorrowful Mother. It is a thrift store and emergency food bank serving the local Steubenville community. If you would like to donate items for the thrift store, there is a drop box behind their building which is located at 424 Washington Street in Steubenville (adjacent to the Diocese of Steubenville offices). Items for the food pantry may be left in the front vestibule of St. Peter Church. As well as the above, the sisters also offer a daily (when they are open) Bible study, and offer RCIA classes. In addition, the sisters operate LAMP Ministry which is a bi-monthly (the 2nd and 4th Saturday, 11 a.m.) catechetical breakfast which is free and open to the public in the basement of Holy Name Cathedral.

Please remember the following clergy in your prayers:

Sunday: Fr. David Cornett
Monday: Bishop Jeffrey Monforton
Tuesday: Fr. William Cross
Wednesday: Fr. Francis Dankoski, OSIHJM
Thursday: Fr. James Dunfee
Friday: Our Holy Father
Saturday: All Priests
