There's a story that started on Christmas,
When a baby was born in the night;
And those who came far, who followed the star
Were seeing a heavenly sight.
A heavenly sight.

Well, the years hurried by, and the boy now a man
Could make the blind see with a touch of His hand.
He was born to be king. He was rabbi and priest.
The best that He had, He gave to the least.
He gave to the least.

He was born and He died almost 2,000 years ago.
He laughed, and He cried. He felt all the fears we know.
But what does it matter a story so strange?
Even if it is true, what does it change?
What does it change?

Well, He spoke like a prophet, like no one they'd heard -
This simple young carpenter; crowds hung on every word.

He hated injustice. He taught what is right.
He said I'm the way and the truth and the light.

His friends soon believed that truly He was the one:
The Savior, Messiah, God's one and only Son.
But others, they doubted. They did not agree.
So they took Him; they tried Him; He died on a tree.
He died on a tree.

God has made a way for all who mourn and grieve.
Death will never be the end if you just believe.
There is nothing left to fear, nothing Heaven knows.
For He died for us to give us life, and to give us hope, He rose.
He died for us to give us life, and to give us hope, He rose.

Happy Easter!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

A pilgrimage is a deepening of the journey in one's life on the road to God. It is met with difficulty, struggle, and, through God's grace, growth. As part of the Chesterton Academy, the students are encouraged to deepen their journey at some point in their High School years. This year, several of the Chesterton Seniors are taking the opportunity to go on pilgrimage to Spain and walk the Camino de Santiago. This does not come without its expenses and we are reaching out for your support.

We are willing to work and are looking for odd jobs that we can do in order to help fund our pilgrimage. If there is anything that you need help with, such as Spring cleaning, yard work, moving, etc., please consider contacting Vicky McFarland at 740.219.2998 or vmfarland360@gmail.com to arrange a work schedule.

The most important aspect of this trip is the deepening of faith. Jesus loves you and gives in abundance. If there is an intention that you would like to send with us, please contact either Vicky or any one of the Senior boys listed below, so that we can offer your special intentions to God on pilgrimage.

May God bless you in your journey as He is blessing us on ours.

Peace be with you!

Chesterton Academy Seniors: Joseph Stetson, Joseph McFarland, Michael McFarland, Daniel McDonald, and Marino Alexander
